How to find Unucha Spa

Unucha Spa is located five minutes from Pisac in the small town of Taray.

- It is a twenty-minute walk from Pisac, a five-minute motor taxi drive, or a three-minute taxi drive.
- Pisac Inn can assist making transportation arrangements; cost not included.
- It is a red door in the rock wall on the main plaza at the motor taxi drop off; there is no sign and no bell.
- The door will be opened ten minutes before your scheduled appointment; Unucha Spa only opens and attends on a reservation basis, which means there is no one available to attend if a reservation has not been made.

Helpful Hints for Unucha Spa

- Please arrive 10 minutes prior to your scheduled appointment to allow time for check-in, and to shower before your treatment. Please remember, we open the door ten minutes before each appointment, so if you arrive more than ten-minutes early we will be attending another guest, or preparing for your treatment.
- Late arrivals will result in a shortened spa experience, as your treatment will conclude at the scheduled time to respect following reservations.

- We attend strictly on a reservation basis, and only open when we have a reservation; no one is at Unucha Spa to attend unless an appointment has been made at Pisac Inn.
- There will be a 30% charge for cancellations or changes; no shows 100% charge. Please understand that each treatment requires several hours of preparation from collecting the plants, to heating the water, and getting the space ready.
- Gratuities are not included in the price of treatments and are gratefully received to acknowledge good service. The typical range is 15-20% of the price of the treatment(s) and may be made in cash at Unucha Spa.

What to bring

All guests will receive a robe, towel, rubber sandals, and shower amenities to use during the visit, and a complimentary detox herbal tea.

- Please bring drinking water, bathing suit for herbal bath, sauna and jacuzzi (not required), and something warm to wear for after the treatment. Please do not bring valuables.
