

Hike to the archaeological complex of Pisac, whose impressive agricultural terraces, which follow the shape of the slopes with fascinating concave and convex shapes, are among the most extensive in the area. Visit the astronomical and ceremonial area, which is comparable to that of Machu Picchu and is widely recognized as one of the finest stone works. This vast complex offers magnificent views of the valley. Enjoy a dizzying walk back to Pisac and have lunch at the Cuchara de Palo restaurant. Spend the afternoon on your own exploring the colorful traditional market of Pisac.

Duration: 4-5 hours

Limited availability: It is absolutely necessary to coordinate in advance.

Altitude: between 9,700 feet (Pisac village) and 11,000 feet (resort)

Description: high altitude hike that requires moderate to strenuous physical effort at your own pace.

Prices

Travellers	Private Service (per person)
1 traveller	$65
2 travellers	$45
3 travellers	$35
4 travellers	$30
5 travellers	$25
6 +	$20

What does it include::

Professional Andean guide in Spanish

Does not include:

Entrance fees. When entering the first complex you must purchase the tourist ticket. The full ticket costs 130 soles per person (approx. 50 dollars), includes admission to 16 different resorts in Cusco and the Sacred Valley, and is valid for 10 days. The partial ticket costs 70 soles per person (approx. 30 dollars), includes admission to 3 resorts and is valid for 2 days. You must pay in soles; neither dollars nor credit cards are accepted.

Tips

Transportation (it is not included but can be arranged if requested, round trip or a single leg).

Recommendations: Wear comfortable clothes for walking at height. Bring appropriate clothing for temperature changes. Be prepared for extreme sun, extreme cold and possible rain. Wear comfortable walking shoes; hiking boots are not necessary. Bring sunscreen, a sun hat and plenty of water to drink

