

Special Events (only with prior notice)
TRADITIONAL MUSIC AND DANCE PRESENTATION

with Wiñay Taki Ayllu

Andean music is one of the great treasures of Peru. Experience Pre-Columbian traditional music & dance featuring countless flutes, drums, song, dance and dress. After years of investigations, Wiñay Taki Ayllu will lead you through the Andean Agrarian Ritual calendar in a celebration of music and dance that is still practiced in the remote communities of Cusco, Lake Titicaca and other regions.

This rich musical exploration is a profound expression of Andean culture, Cosmo vision and values, and is a uniquely authentic opportunity for visitors looking for something real rather than a folkloric show for tourists.

Learn why certain instruments are played during specific times of year, and understand their connection to the cosmic cycles in nature.

To conclude, the Cusqueño style Orquestin complete with harp, violin, mandolin, quena and the high-pitched women's voices creates a festive air.

Duration: 1 ½ – 2 hours

Description: Feel the essence of Andean culture come alive through a moving music & dance exploration, presented by founders and alumnae of the Kusi Kawsay Andean School project.

Price & Location: Please contact us for details.

Cooking Class

Cooking Class: Participate in a hands-on cooking class at Pisac Inn. The cost is $20 per person.

Approximate duration: One-hour